

algorithm

The diagram consists of two large, irregular shapes. The left shape is orange and has a jagged, stepped right edge. The right shape is blue and has a smooth, straight left edge. A white border separates the two shapes. The word 'algorithm' is written in black text in the top-left corner of the orange shape, and the word 'implementation' is written in black text in the middle of the blue shape.

implementation